
THE INTERNATIONAL INFLUENCE OF THE NORWEGIAN 1814 CONSTITUTION

1814 – 1920

OSLO, PROFESSORBOLIGEN, 18 – 20TH NOVEMBER 2015

Programme

Wednesday 18th November

- 13.00 – 14.00 Registration at the conference venue
- 14.00 – 14.15 Welcome by Ola Mestad
- 14.15 – 15.00 Eidsvold! The model for Danish liberals.
Assistant Professor Rasmus Glenthøj
- 15.00 – 15.45 Models and their Reception: Constitutionalism in Post-Napoleonic Europe and the Role of the Norwegian Constitution
Dr. Markus J. Prutsch
- 15.45 – 16.30 Editions and translations of the Norwegian Constitution
PhD Ruth Hemstad
- 16.30 – 17.15 Buchholz' reading of the Norwegian constitution seen in context
Håkon Harket

Thursday 19th November

- 09.00 – 09.45 A Menace or a Promise? The Norwegian Constitution in Swedish Politics after 1814
Professor Torbjörn Nilsson
- 09.45 – 10.30 The reporting in 1814 about the Norwegian Constitution in German newspapers.
Stian Eisenträger
- 10.30 – 10.45 Short break
- 10.45 – 11.30 The Norwegian Constitution as masterpiece of evolutionary constitutional formation and counterpart of the predominant monarchical concentration in the early 19th century.
Professor Ulrike Müßig
- 11.30 – 12.15 The Norwegian constitution of 1814 as a model for Schleswig-Holstein?
Professor Martin Krieger

- 12.15 – 13.15 Lunch
- 13.15 – 14.00 The Norwegian constitution of 1814 in the German Publications of the 19th century
Professor Martin Löhnig
- 14.00 – 14.45 The Reception of the Norwegian Constitution in the German Vormärz – Ludolf Wienbarg and Theodor Mügge
Associate professor Cathrine Theodorsen
- 14.45 – 15.00 Short break
- 15.00 – 15.45 Open and hidden traces of the Norwegian Constitution in liberal Russia, 1814–1825
Eugenia Blücher
- 15.45 – 16.30 The Limits and Opportunities of the Norwegian Constitution as a Model for European Constitutionalists in the First Half of the Nineteenth Century
Post.doc. Morten Ottosen
- 16.30 – 17.15 Republican Monarchy: The neo-Roman concept of Liberty and the Norwegian Constitution of 1814
Håvard Friis Nilsen
- 18.00 Dinner for all participants at Professorboligen

Friday 20th November

- 09.00 – 09.45 Norway as a political reference in British and Irish public debate 1830-1920
Associate Professor Sissel Rosland
- 09.45 – 10.30 The Influence of the Norwegian Constitution in the Political and Cultural Debate of the Italian peninsula
PhD, Ida Ferrero
- 10.30 – 10.45 Short break
- 10.45 – 11.30 The influence of the Norwegian Constitution in Hungary during the long 19th century
PhD candidate Boldizsár Szentgáli-Tóth
- 11.30 – 12.15 Appearance of the Norwegian 1814 Constitution in the Hungarian Parliamentary Debates 1867–1922
PhD-student Gábor Bathó
- 12.15 – 13.15 Lunch

13.15 – 14.00

The Influence of the Norwegian Constitution in Iceland, 1918–1944

Professor Ragnhildur Helagdottir

14.00 – 14.45

The Norwegian use of international interpretations of the Norwegian Constitution in the second half of the 19th Century

Professor Ola Mestad